FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE REGISTERED VOTER REQUIREMENTS

Dennehotso Chapter Dennehotso (Apache County) Arizona Western Navajo Agency

It is the policy of the Dennehotso Chapter that in order to receive any type of assistance from this Chapter, one must be a Registered Voter; “with the Navajo Nation at their respective Chapters”.

To register to vote with the Navajo Nation, one has to complete a Voter Registration Form at their respective Chapter or Agency Office and signed by an authorized registrar. Once this is done, you only have to wait approximately (3) three months to ensure that you are entered on the list of registered voters from the Navajo Nation. Then you can apply for assistance from the Chapter on a once per year basis, for assistance such as;

- 1. Education Assistance (Amount Varies)
- 2. Emergency Housing Repairs
- 3. Emergency Assistance
- 4. Burial Assistance
- 5. Archeological Clearances (Partial)
- 6. Veterans Assistance

Once registered with the tribe, only one has to maintain a consistent voting record to continue to be eligible for assistance. If residing off the reservation at the time of application for assistance, one only has to request and absentee ballot to vote in the Navajo Nation elections, which will ensure you stay registered with the tribe. It is very important that one continues to vote during each election to stay current.
